Bhan Tugh By Steve Rhodes

Bhan Tugh reveals the secrets of your DNA to initiate a total transformation of yourself and your relationship with the world. We are about to reach one of the great turning points of humanity in 2027 when we will see the emergence of a new species and with that the end of our civilisation as we know it. Bhan Tugh gives you a glimpse into the future where people will interact differently with each other, where their diets will be correct for what their bodies demand and living their lives will no longer revolve around greed and fear. It will be a time of authentic living, according to your own truth. It won't be a time of manipulation and people being herded like sheep. It will be the end of morality. For some of us this future is already here. With bhanugh.com you can: Find out who you are. See your relationships with others in a new light. Start eating according to what your body needs and watch your being and life change as a result. Welcome to your future.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Steve Rhodes was born in Austria where he spent his childhood and studied mechanical engineering-management before moving to London. While at university, he won a nationwide search for best music-newcomer and subsequently got signed to Columbia records as a singer & composer. Various TV, radio and other media appearances followed. Steve later built his own recording studio and established himself as a music producer. He also had his own film studio and produced music videos incorporating early 3D computer animation. In 2003, he was introduced to the Human Design system and began to study with the founder Ra Uru Hu. He then lived for a few years on the Mediterranean island of Ibiza where Ra lived. Until 2010, Steve owned one of the leading recording studios in London (Alpha Centauri Recording) that was used by U2, Kanye West, M.I.A., Depeche Mode and many others.
