Editorial Review

Review

Jane L. Swanson and Nadya A. Fouad do a masterful job of bringing theory to life through the lived stories of actual career clients. I very much appreciated the book's format, the examples, the discussion questions, and the richly developed case examples." (Mary J. Heppner, University of Missouri, Columbia, commenting on the First Edition)

"The case study method is very effective. Students can see firsthand how the theories are interpreted and applied. Often they get a better understanding of their own lives and career history." (Anne Zachmeyer, Rochester Institute of Technology)

"Theory discussion is complete and usable for students; the quality of the text is strong." (Meredith J. Drew, Centenary College)

About the Author

Nadya A. Fouad, Ph.D. is a professor in the Department of Educational Psychology at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and training director of the Counseling Psychology program there. She was President of Division 17 from 2000-2001, and previously served as Vice President for Diversity and Public Interest (1996-1999).
