Editorial Review

Review

A ground-breaking book. All students will profit from reading an astrologer whose insights are backed up by thorough research and balanced judgment. Tim Lyons, review in Planet Earth Magazine Bogart has made a wonderful contribution to the astrological community library where this book will take an honored place next to the best of Dane Rudhyar. Review in Dell Horoscope Such terms as 'personal growth' and 'transformation' are often just nice, fuzzy buzzwords behind which resides very little but more nice, fuzzy words. But as Bogart uses them, there is neither fuzz nor buzz, as he tells the reader exactly what he means by them. . . . Exceptionally straightforward. Well-done, fascinating, and highly recommended reading. Ken Irving, Editor, American Astrology Magazine This valuable book explores the essential purpose of astrology: To serve as a beacon that can illuminate our individual road to enlightenment. Dennis Harness, Ph.D., Director, Institute of Vedic Astrology Well researched, original in concept, and written for all levels of astrologers, this book is, without doubt, one of the best treatises on transpersonal astrology ever published. Review in Astrology -- Your Daily Horoscope Magazine
