Editorial Review

Review

"Rob and Lena's story is so imperfect and such a hoot to read that most won't want it to end. The numerous twists and turns will keep you hanging off the edge of your seat, and the magical setting in France will reel you in all the way up till the magnificent finish."-- Romantic Times

"An enjoyable love story made even more romantic by its enchanting Parisian backdrop."-- Kirkus Reviews

"What If It's Love? had me holding my breath and rooting for Lena and Rob's relationship to work. It is an incredibly well written contemporary love story with a dramatic twist. ... It is also an inspired coming of age story. Lena grows from a sheltered, insecure young woman into an accomplished adult. What If It's Love? is an exceptionally entertaining contemporary romance."-- Readers' Favorite

"All the hallmarks of a good romance, and a lovely Parisian setting in the form of the quirky little La Bohème cafe and its circle of patrons."-- The Midwest Book Review
