Prepare your youngest homeschoolers for learning while giving them freedom and flexibility to learn what they enjoy. The goal of fun-Schooling is to spark a love for learning.

"My 6 year old daughter was excited to get her own journal when her older siblings got theirs. She feels big that she can do some of her school independently (and I love that too!). She loves to draw so this is a great fit for her as there are many places for artwork. We use the coloring pages as an opportunity for her to listen to an audio book or music for a while. I've noticed her coloring is much neater and detailed when she is listening to something. We have been very happy with this journal."
