Forgiveness is necessary for you to live your life fully, but sometimes you just can't overcome the obstacles standing in your way. You get stuck in resentment, sadness, anger or other hurtful states of being. Consider the following questions.

- Is there someone in your life from your past or present that hurt you so much that you just cannot seem to forgive them?
- Do you sometimes lose it and have aggressive outbursts?
- Do you regret things you have done in the past that you can't seem to forgive yourself for?

If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, you are most likely struggling with forgiveness, and this book has solutions to help you.

Forgiveness is a powerful tool that can liberate you. This book teaches you how to release your resentment; free yourself from the pain, anger and other burdens from the past; forgive yourself and others; and express your feelings in a positive way. It shows you how to forgive so you can live an abundant life, give and receive love, lessen stress and improve relationships.

You will gain more control over your life after learning forgiveness methods including how to forgive yourself as well as others. You will also become aware of the dangers of how not forgiving can negatively affect your mind and body. This book includes some of Nancy's life lessons so you can connect on a more personal level. The action steps in this book will empower you to make changes in your life today! Right here, right now. The author has also gathered a collection of quotes to inspire you while you are on your journey to greatness.
