Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

"Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you! Let the nations be glad and sing for joy" (Psalm 67:3-4). The passion of the Lord is that all peoples praise him. The stakes are high and the cost is great, but the joy is greater.

This eight-lesson study guide offers a biblical defense of God's supremacy in all things, providing readers with a sound theological foundation for missions. Topics include defining missions and defining peoples, the urgency of missions, the goal and the fuel of missions, prayer, and suffering.

This study guide is designed to be used in a guided group study with the Let the Nations Be Glad! DVD featuring John Piper.

Praise for Let the Nations Be Glad!

"If I had to choose only one book on missions, Let the Nations Be Glad! would be it. Don't read it unless you're willing to have your eyes reopened to the highest possible motive for being about the business of reaching the world for Christ."--Duane Litfin, president, Wheaton College

"Passion. Theology. Exegesis. Relevance. John Piper weaves them all together in Let the Nations Be Glad!"--Leith Anderson, president, National Association of Evangelicals

"The most important book on missions for this generation. John Piper places missions where it belongs: at the heart of God's desire to be glorified among the nations."--R. Albert Mohler Jr., president, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary
