Editorial Review

From the Author

The character of Angel St. Clair is dear to my heart. She is truly a broken woman having suffered so much. Of course, I love the way fate intervenes with a different plan than the one she has mapped for herself. If you've read book one, you know that Luke Samson, son of Brant Samson and stepson of Abby, went through his own suffering after the death of his mother. However, the unwavering love of his family changed him from a sullen, heartbroken boy, into the perfect man for an angel.
