- I really enjoyed this book, from the setting of a romantic getaway to the characters and how they interacted together. I recommend this book for anybody looking for a new spin on love and a look at the struggles they have. There is plenty of twist in this book and well worth the read overall. Reviewed by Kenzie for Cocktails and Books
- I don't think I am making this a habit, but I found another new author with great potential. Hayson Manning's debut story, Wife in Name Only, is an emotional romance story and definitely worth reading. I was drawn in by the back cover summary of how one can renew love when you think it is gone and died. Guilty Pleasures Book Reviews
