Who Really Settled Mesoamerica? By Mr. Del DowDell

MORE NEPHI CODE As thoroughly documented in Lehi Never Saw Mesoamerica, since the Nephite Land of Promise was the Andean area of South America, this second, follow-up work answers the question, "With Lehi landing in South America, who then left the ruins in Mexico, Belize, the Yucatan and Guatemala?" This volume also answers the follow-up question, "Since the Olmecs of Vera Cruz, Mexico, were not the precursors of the Jaredites, where did they land if not in Mesoamerica?" These questions, never asked by others, are at the heart of the geographical setting of the Nephite Nation. Many members of the Church, almost all LDS and BYU archaeologists, and all of F.A.R.M.S. and other ancient studies groups involved in this work, believe that Mesoamerica was the landing site of the Lehi Colony, and of the Jaredites long before them. However, a careful study of the sciences connected to the words Nephite left us, and the brief account of the Jaredites, the wind and sea currents, and climate, soils and other factors, as suggested in scripture simply cannot be satisfied by Mesoamerica. This second work shows the message Nephite prophets and Ether left us regarding the settlement of the Western Hemisphere, and provides an exciting and insightful glance at the world of the Jaredites, their trek to the Great Sea and the oceans they crossed in submersible barges to reach their land of promise-and where that land of promise was located.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Del DowDell, has put on seminars, trained and lectured extensively in more than 40 States, has owned and operated three businesses, designed international business strategies and operations programs, and taught, written and studied extensively about the Book of Mormon. Del has been involved in numerous Ward, Stake, Regional and Area callings since he was 14 years old, served as a Bishop in southern California, served on several high councils, and designed numerous training presentations, videos, and written programs for Church, Education, and Business. His love for the absolute accuracy of the Book of Mormon has resulted in this work, and three following volumes regarding the numerous misconceptions about where Lehi landed, where the Nephites' Land of Promise was located, and who really settled in Mesoamerica-including who the Jaredites were of Noah's posterity and how and when they came to settle in the Western Hemisphere. As an historian, researcher, writer, speaker, artist, and businessman, Del has undertaken this work that has spanned nearly twenty years to set the record straight on complete accuracy of every word in the Book of Mormon. As a scientific hobbyist and researcher, he has written several works on the fallacies of many scientific beliefs, has also authored scholarly works on Mesoamerica and the Andes Mountains, and his work on What's What in the Legal Hut was used by businesses and major corporations to design and implement training programs on legal management methods. As a father of seven and a grandfather of 27 and counting, Del's diverse and copious experiences and credentials enable him to write and speak on numerous subjects, including the teaching of the Book of Mormon for more than 30 years. Del currently lives with his wife of 48 years in a house he personally designed and they built themselves on a high ridge overlooking a spacious valley in a rural area of Southern Utah.
