Their Jihad NOT My Jihad: Or How Can You Possibly be an Anti-Terrorist Muslim? By Raheel Raza

Devout Muslim, Raheel Raza, gained international attention by appearing on the O’Rielly Factor in protest of the Ground Zero mosque. As a Pakistan-born Canadian Muslim she seems to break all conventions. Though a self-labeled feminist and progressive, Americans might call her a “conservative” for her general disdain for political correctness. Raheel has no illusions about the current problems of the Muslim world. With common decency and the Qur’an as her guide, she shows how Islam can be a religion of peace.
