About the Author

Nannette LaRee Hernandez is a California Native, born on a hot July 4 evening in 1965. She has lived in California, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Arizona, and Texas. Nannette wrote her college Thesis on Sex and Relationships and why that old 'Chemistry Click' never lasts past the first real Relationship Crisis. After college, Nannette opened a consulting business in Arlington, Texas and listened to what men had to say about women. Nannette concluded at the end of her research that men want sex above anything else because they rarely get it without a negotiation, quarrel, sulking glare, guilt-trip or demanded favor in return. Nannette then wrote, "Creative Screwing" a book for blind, ill-informed and sexually heartless women, that speaks the blunt truth about men and sex and shows these women the vast proportion of their power, and then gives them permission to fuck like THEY REALLY WANT TOO---hoping to inspire at least one women to enjoy her life. Nannette has appeared on countless talk shows, from local network television shows, to cable shows like, Real Personal with Bob Berkowitz, She has also been on numerous radio shows, and had book excerpts, articles and book reviews printed in magazines from Playgirl to New Woman.

Nannette's books are currently sold online at bookstores, at her seminars or via various sexually based websites on the Internet. Nannette is delighted to speak with anyone who expresses interest in her book or products. If you would like more information, please email her at Proffessorlust@Yahoo.com.
