"So you're no' a lassie, eh?" The Scotsman gave her a look that made her entire body heat.

"I'm an American." The excuse sounded ridiculous. "We don't have lassies."

"Then beautiful women." He touched her face, tucking a strand of hair behind her ear.

Kendra's pulse beat harder. Tiny shivers spilled through her, delicious and unsettling. "There are lots of gorgeous women in the States. Smart women who—"

"I meant you."

From the Back Cover

Mini-Excerpt II ~ Haunted Warrior

His broad shoulders blocked out the beach, narrowing her world to his beautiful Scottish self. His soft, lilting voice that was so sexy he could use it as a weapon. Say a few words, anything at all, and every woman within hearing range would melt into a puddle at his feet. His scent was fatal. Heady and addictive, it invaded her senses, filling her mind with images that weren't good for her.

There was something terribly intoxicating about the blend of leather, brisk cold air, and man.

No, a Scotsman.

Clearly, that elevated him above all other men. And she should not be noticing.

Too bad she did.
