the three o'clock in the morning sessions By Angie Martin

A breathtaking collection of poetry and short stories, "the three o'clock in the morning sessions" leads readers through the familiar theme of love, lost love, and unrequited love with a gorgeous twist. The poems vary widely in emotion and is something to which all readers can relate. The musical, perfectly timed lines latch onto the heart and soul and does not let go. This collection was written over the span of almost fifteen years and also contains two short stories: "the door" and "brief love".
